

Advocacy Update

January 27, 2012

Acosta and Carpenter Report (January 23)—Linda Carpenter and Vivian Acosta have just released their 35 year update on the status of women in intercollegiate athletics. Read More

Castle Rock school officials admit mistakes were made about access to football field (January 25)—After parents complained last fall over access to the football field, district officials have acknowledged that mistakes were made. Read More

Scathing memo urges referees to enforce sportsmanship rules (January 27)— The NCAA's national coordinator for officials has had enough with the taunting, profanity, and inappropriate gesturing in college basketball. Read More

Proposed college merger raises sports question (January 27)—As more legislatures seek to cut expenses, more are proposing consolidating campuses. The effect of the merge on athletic programs is still to be determined. Read More