

Advocacy Update

September 6-September 9

Baylor awaiting Sooners' move (September 9)—With the fall college athletic season having started, the focus should be on the student-athlete and their achievements and competitions. However, the summer distractions have carried over into the fall. The Big 12 and the fate of their member institution and their athletes is once again facing an indefinite future. After the expected withdrawal of Texas A&M and the abrupt announcement by the University of Oklahoma announcing that they too are keeping their options open, the remaining institutions are fighting back. Read More