

Advocacy Update

June 6 – June 10, 2011

NACWAA National Office Hosts International Delegates (June 9) – The NACWAA Office was honored to host five delegates from the Women's World Cup initiative launched by Secretary of State, Hillary Clinton. A recap of the day can be found on the NACWAA blog.

Read Secretary of State Clinton's remarks on the initiative.

Read the press release from the Kansas City Star

NCAA Expert Forum on Minority Opportunities in Football (June 8) – The NCAA has invited 19 top football coaches from throughout the membership to attend the Expert Forum on June 16 - 18 in Orlando, FL in conjunction with the NACDA Convention. The Forum will be addressing the critical lack of minority representation among collegiate head football coaches. Read more.